

Job Description: Competition Manager – European Boxing

Overview

The Competition Manager for European Boxing is responsible for planning, organizing, and delivering boxing competitions across Europe by assignment of European Boxing and the Sport & Competition Committee. This role ensures that all events are executed in full compliance with the technical, sporting, and safety standards of the European and international boxing federations. The Competition Manager works closely with national federations, event organizers, officials, athletes, and internal departments to guarantee smooth, fair, and high-quality competitions. This is a part-time, remote position, with international travel required for European Boxing events and meetings.

The Competition Manager reports to the Secretary General and works closely with the Sport & Competition Committee on all technical and competition-related matters.

Key Responsibilities

Planning & Organization

- Develop and implement competition concepts for European boxing tournaments and championships.
- Create schedules, bout programs, tournament structures (draws, seeding, competition formats).
- Coordinate with local organizing committees, venues, and technical service providers.
- Ensure full compliance with European Boxing regulations.
- Create and maintain bidding guidelines for European events, including requirements, evaluation criteria, and hosting standards.
- Create and maintain the handbooks for the European Championships
- Manage the registration and accreditation Process for all European Boxing Championships.

Cooperation with Sport & Competition Committee

- Collaborate closely with the European Boxing Sport & Competition Committee.
- Participate in committee meetings without voting rights.
- Ensure the implementation and follow-up of decisions and actions mandated by the Sport & Competition Committee.

Competition Operations

- Manage event operations on-site, including briefings, coordination of officials, and supervision of all competition areas.
- Ensure safety, fairness, and athlete welfare throughout the event.
- Handle crisis management in case of operational or sporting issues.
- Oversee weigh-ins, medical checks, and equipment controls.

Coordination & Communication

- Act as the main liaison between European Boxing, national federations, teams, referees/judges, and technical delegates in close coordination with the Sport Integrity Officer.
- Prepare and lead technical meetings before and during competitions.
- Produce official reports, documentation, and results management.

Regulations & Compliance

- Monitor the correct implementation of competition rules, safety standards, and anti-doping requirements.
- Evaluate competition procedures and support continuous improvement.
- Assist in updating technical manuals and guidelines.

Event Development & Innovation

- Analyze competition quality and propose improvements for future events.

- Integrate new technologies (scoring systems, live data, digital tools).
- Support in development the new competition formats esports boxing and mixed team-event

Requirements

Professional Qualifications

- University degree in Sports Management, Event Management, Social Sciences (management, marketing, communication sciences, Kinesiology, or an equivalent field.
- At least 3 years of experience in sports event management, ideally in boxing or combat sports.
- Strong knowledge of technical rules in World Boxing.
- Experience working in an international environment is an asset.

Personal Skills

- Excellent organizational and communication skills.
- Strong decision-making and problem-solving abilities, even under pressure.
- Ability to work effectively in multicultural teams.
- High willingness to travel across Europe.

Additional Requirements

- Excellent command of English (additional languages are an advantage).
- Availability to work weekends and variable schedules during events.
- Technical proficiency with sport software, scoring systems, and event management tools.

What We Offer

- Opportunity to work on top-level international sporting events.
- A key role in shaping and delivering European boxing competitions.
- A dynamic, international working environment.
- Opportunities for professional development and specialization.

Application process:

All candidates interested in applying for this role should email a copy of their curriculum vitae (CV), copies of certificates and diplomas confirming the required skills (if applicable), and a covering letter explaining their suitability for the role to Mr. Len Huard, Vice-President of European Boxing, at admin@europeanboxing.org.

The closing date for applications is 31st January 2026 at 23:59 CET