

Why Finland is the happiest country in the world

Elsa, Anselmi & Angelica

Housing

- Safe neighbourhoods but also good security systems.
- Most of people have bought their own house/apartment
- Everybody has a right to have their own houses.
- We live close to forests and local services.
- Houses have quite big properties so people have their own peaceful space.
- Houses are well built

Life-work balance

- We study or work only five days a week.
- Maximum regular working time is only 40 hours/week.
- Many affordable hobbies offered by different kind of organizations.
- It's a law that we have to study till we are 18-years old.
- Our education is paid by taxes so it's free. We don't have tuition fees.
