INTERNATIONAL AND JOINT WORKCAMPS PROGRAMME

2023

Tour the world: there's no summit as white as Ararat's

INFO-SHEET

Welcome or “Bari Galoust” as we say in Armenia!

MEETING POINT

Armenian volunteers of your camp will meet you at the airport in case your arrival time is between 8:00-24:00 and will take you to the camp.

If your arrival time is after midnight, you will have to look for a bus to the center of Yerevan or take a taxi to the work camp.

After sending your application and being accepted to the work camp, you will soon receive an email from your camp leader, please reply promptly.

VISA

Visa-free regime for EU and CIS citizens. The updated list of countries not needing visa to enter Armenia is available here: <http://mfa.am/en/visa>

WORK

All our camps have become traditional. Types of the works are renovation, ecological, cultural, aesthetic work with children. The work is expected to be interesting and varied.

The participants will get certificates by the end of the work camps.

ACCOMMODATION AND FOOD

Do not worry about sleeping bags, as you will stay in hostels/buildings/cottages of the hosting organizations where you will be provided with beds/mattresses and bedding packs.

In Armenian camps you should be disciplined and organized. Making beds and keeping the rooms neat and clean every day is obligatory.

Volunteers will prepare the food by themselves. You will taste all kinds of Armenian traditional food, such as dolma, khorovats (barbecue), kiabab, khashlama, incomparable fruits of Ararat Valley - apricots, grapes, peaches, apples, berries etc. and vegetables.

LEISURE TIME

Armenia is called an open-air museum. You will have lots of interesting excursions and visits to historical monuments and museums, which will be organized during the work camp.

The excursions to the following sights will be organized upon the decision of the camp and all the visits will be free. The proposed list of the excursions is the following: Echmiadzin Mother Cathedral, Zvartnots Cathedral ruins, Garni Pagan Temple, Geghard Monastery Complex with a program of World Heritage Initiative, Lake Sevan (with a barbecue on the beach). Volunteers will visit Matenadaran-storehouse of ancient manuscripts, Historical Museum of Armenia or National Gallery of Armenia, museum of famous film director S. Parajanov, Vernissage-Armenian big souvenirs market under the open sky.

Different games, Armenian dancing and language lessons will be organized in the workcamps.

Leisure time for joint workcamps are individual.

WHAT TO BRING WITH YOU

It is very important to bring with you different board games, songbooks, and children's songs to work with children and for using in the performances/concerts which will be organized on the last day of the work camp.

During the workcamp volunteers will organize the Intercultural days when each volunteer will present his/her country, so please bring photos and booklets describing your country, recipes of national dishes, products and spices and national songs.

You can bring your musical instruments, CDs with your favorite national songs and music and, of course, your high spirit and creativity.

PARTICIPATION FEE

For volunteers from organizations with bilateral exchange with HUI: 50€

For volunteers from organizations without bilateral exchange with HUI: 100€

Representation of HUI

Voluntary Service of Armenia-Republican Headquarters of Student Brigades (HUI) was founded in 1965 and is registered as a non-governmental organization. HUI is a member of the Coordinating Committee of International Voluntary Service (CCIVS) at UNESCO and the Alliance of European Voluntary Service organizations.

HUI organizes volunteer exchanges with partner organizations abroad and holds a database of 3000 volunteers registered in HUI as of today.

The main activities run by HUI are for and with volunteers, mainly the young people. The regular activities of organization include exchange of volunteers with different organizations, opening international work camps in Armenia, preparation and sending volunteers to different trainings, seminars and work camps abroad, as well as ESC, Weltwaerts and IJFD projects.

The essential aims of the organization are to raise the social competences and employability of the youth by organizing activities for national and foreign volunteers in various programs in Armenia (workcamps, training courses, medium and long-term projects) as well as facilitating the participation of local and national volunteers in similar projects abroad; to take care of orphans, children with special needs and socially indigent people by proposing activities to and for them and making them more visible for local, national and international communities.

10 volunteers

Location:

Zvartnots Cathedral

The work camp is organized within the frameworks of World Heritage Volunteers Initiative launched by UNESCO World Heritage Centre and Coordinating Committee for International Voluntary Service (CCIVS). One of the main goals of the project is to raise awareness about the necessity to protect, preserve and promote cultural and natural heritage in general and the inscribed or potential World Heritage sites in particular.

Zvartnots was built in the middle of the 7th century. This architectural masterpiece is a monument which embodies the centuries-long traditions of Armenian architecture. Unfortunately, Zvartnots has “survived” only in ruins, as it was completely destroyed by a powerful earthquake in the 10th century..

The camp will be opened for the 14th time and is already a popular and traditional one.

Work:

The major objective of the work camp is to preserve this historical site for the future generations, to keep it in worthy conditions to allow the visitors to be spiritually enriched and to contemplate the beauty and the splendour of this monument.

Activities for the volunteers are as follows:

- Maintenance of the territory - removing the over-grown grass, weeds.
- National sounds of Zvartnots-learning Armenian national dances, songs.
- Cultural program-My impressions about World Heritage Power point presentations of the volunteers on their impressions and feelings about the project and plans for the future.
- Presentation of the countries the volunteers come from, and of the UNESCO World Heritage Objects existing there.

The participants will get certificates by the end of the work camp.

Accommodation:

Guest house on the territory of the Cathedral.

Address: ZVARTNOTS Cathedral (20 km from capital Yerevan), Armavir Province (Marz)

10 volunteers

Location:

Republican Paediatric Rehabilitation Centre, Yerevan

The camp will be opened for the 27th time and is already a popular and traditional one. Every year the children, who receive their treatment here, look forward to meeting the volunteers in summer.

Volunteers bring a lot of ideas, spirit, love, warmth, kindness, and make the stay of the children in this Center a great holiday. They make these children feel that they are needed, valued and help them to reveal their talents and abilities.

Work:

The aim of this work camp is organization of the leisure time of small number of children with disabilities that receive their treatment in this Centre and environmental work on the territory.

Volunteers' day will begin with environmental work: maintaining the territory, cleaning children's playground from weed and grass, painting and some renovation work. After the children finish their therapy, volunteers will join them to draw, sculpt, sing and dance, do physical training, play games.

At the end of the camp volunteers and children will organize a farewell concert.

The participants will get certificates and letters of appreciation by the end of the work camp.

Accommodation:

Volunteers will stay in a separate cottage on the territory of the Rehabilitation Center and sleep in beds.

Special requirements:

Volunteers are asked to bring different games, face-paint or other materials to work with children.

HOPESHINE

Location: Yerevan Special School N 14

The camp will be opened for the 8th time and is already a popular and traditional one. The special school for visually impaired children was established in 1939 in Yerevan. This school is the only one in Armenia where the education is organized using the Braille system. Most of the children stay in the school during the school year and return home only for holidays. The school gives children secondary and specialized education. In 2014 - 2020 volunteers renovated classrooms and showers.

During the work camp the children will be on holidays and the volunteers will be alone in the school building.

Work:

The aim of this work camp is the renovation of classrooms in the school and maintenance of the territory.

Accommodation:

Volunteers will stay in the dormitories of the school. They will be provided with beds.
