

Ambassadors for Peace

Unis Cité
Normandie

About Unis-Cité

Since 1994, Unis-Cité has been offering young people from all social and cultural backgrounds, with or without qualifications, able-bodied or disabled, and so on, the chance to devote 8 months of their lives to a collective commitment to helping the underprivileged, the environment, culture, sport or education for all while providing them with monthly compensation, training, and collective and individual support.

The mission

★ Volunteers

- ~ 12 young people aged 16-25
- ~ 6 French, 6 international
- ~ Volunteering for a civic service in Caen, Normandy, for 8 months

★ Goal

- ~ Educating other young people about Human Rights
- ~ Working in various french educational establishments with a diverse range of young people
- ~ Promoting the Freedom Prize: an international event where young people from all over the world can nominate and reward people or organizations committed to Human Rights

The day-to-day

★ Tasks

A wide range of different tasks aiming at building, organizing and running activities and events for other young people:

- ~ Contacting establishments
- ~ Creating activities
- ~ Managing travel
- ~ Running awareness-raising and educational event for audiences ranging from 3 to over 300 people!

contact details

Léopold Gauquelin
lgauquelin@uniscite.fr
07.61.59.59.27

★ Training and perks

- ~ Training by Unis-Cité, Amnesty International, the International Institute for Human Rights and Peace, among others
- ~ A wide range of activities to encourage inclusion with the other volunteers, such as workshops and group projects
- ~ Volunteers get to discover and travel across Normandy, a region with a history that is rich and entangled with the struggle for Human Rights, and perhaps even other regions around it!

