

GLOBAL INITIATIVE FOR EXCHANGE AND DEVELOPMENT INC.

THE PHILIPPINES
INBOUND PROGRAM WORK PROFILE 2026-2027

Dear IVS Colleagues and IVS Volunteers,

TODAY is a very special year for us International Voluntary Service (IVS) practitioners as “United Nations declare 2026 as the International Volunteer Year! recognizing volunteerism as a key driver to sustainable development”. We specially dedicate our IVS initiatives this year as it is consistent with our UN’s Sustainable Development Goals in collaboration with our Local Partner Institutions (LPI). We wish to showcase with you our local community development work that highlights the value of active global citizenship. By this exposure, we hope you will be strongly motivated to contribute as it is centered with service learning, intercultural understanding, actions for peace and solidarity.

For a brief time, the opportunity to walk through our local daily realities opens a chance to be acquainted with our culture, people and way of life. We hope you are spiritually, mentally, emotionally and physically ready to be immersed with our society, open your mind, and have the maturity to respect and appreciate our values and norms.

We wish that through this conscious learning and doing process, the continuous chain of expanding global understanding and building tolerance will further equip you with better knowledge, attributes and skills to indicate a lasting positive impact in your life.

The Philippines is a fast-growing country in the Southeast Asia, with multiculturalism and rich biodiversity, that makes it an exciting place to learn and grow.

Welcome to the Philippines. MABUHAY!

Sincerely,

GIED FAMILY

1. Summary

Supporting the community initiative to strengthen the booming local coffee industry and experience the vibrant rural life of Tuburan, Cebu

2. Background	Over the years, various government agencies have supported the development of coffee farming in Tuburan, culminating in its recognition as the coffee capital of Cebu. Presently, Tuburan Coffee sources beans from over 3,000 hectares of coffee small holdings spread across 29 barangays (villages), benefiting more than 2,000 local farmers from the town in the process. This initiative aimed to promote coffee farming as a more sustainable and lucrative livelihood for upland communities, offering an alternative to activities like charcoal production and firewood gathering, which have contributed significantly to deforestation. This development strategy of the Tuburan local government actively supports the synchronization and ecological balance of nature and human development.

1. Summary	Revitalization of the BP Cebu urban garden to inspire local residents to renew active community engagement and practice circle economy
2. Background	The Bukas Palad Cebu Garden Re-invigoration Project is GIED's effort in providing support to BPCFI as one of its Local Partner Institution (LPI) greatly affected by super typhoon Tino in November 2025. This initiative will focus on the restoration and revitalization of their community garden after it was devastated by the aftermath of the said typhoon. The garden serves as a peaceful and nurturing space of their community, through this workcamp, volunteers will come together in the spirit of "bayanihan" to clean debris, repair damaged areas, prepare the soil and make nursery for seedlings to be planted and revive the space. Beyond the physical restoration, the project symbolizes hope, resilience, and community solidarity. By lending our time and effort, we aim to rebuild the garden on a regular basis and continue to invite more volunteers to help restore a safe and welcoming environment for the beneficiaries and community of BPCFI. Together, we turn the aftermath of disaster into an opportunity for renewal, growth, and meaningful service.
3. Work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Cleaning, clearing debris, soil preparation, and restore the garden</li> <li>● Repair minor garden structures and improve the overall condition of the space to make it safe and functional again.</li> <li>● Design and landscape the garden area</li> <li>● Recycle, re-use and upcycle waste materials</li> <li>● School and community Visit</li> <li>● Children and youth engagement through sports, games, arts and music, etc.</li> <li>● Cultural exchange</li> </ul>
4. Food and accommodation	Home stay at one of the vacant houses of the BP Cebu Village. All meals will be cooked by volunteers in turn. Sleeping a bag is necessary.
5. Study Themes	Pass on the "bayanihan" by coming together to support and uplift the community through volunteerism. Sharing ideas for sustainable development and promote circle economy
6. Other Activities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Team building and group dynamic activities to build friendship and intercultural understanding,</li> <li>● Visit local heritage sites, nature walk, swim at the beach, etc.</li> </ul>
