UNITY CANVAS : Collective Art for Wellness & Awareness"

THE TRAINING WILL GATHER 20 YOUTH WORKERS (>18 YO) SUPPORTED BY 3 TRAINERS WHO WILL PRESENT, THROUGH WORKSHOPS, DIFFERENT APPROACHES TO DESIGN AND FACILITATE INTERCULTURAL & COLLECTIVE ART CREATION FOR YOUTH'S WELL-BEING AND ENVIRONNEMENTAL AWARENESS

Interculturalism, developed through diverse experiences, empowers individuals to bridge cultural gaps, promoting unity, integration, and appreciation of diversity while honoring personal identities and inclusivity. It requires active participation in collaborative efforts with others.

The initiative to create collective and intercultural art aims to promote healing and environmental awareness through artistic expression, addressing issues such as pollution and waste management. Participants, regardless of their artistic background, will engage in creative processes to foster positive impact and intercultural understanding. Equipped with newfound skills, they will be able to lead intercultural workshops for various groups (e.g. international volunteer work camps, youth exchanges, European Solidarity Corps) using the tools and methods experienced during the training.

Through this training we aim to strengthen the role of youth organizations as actors of initiatives on collective construction and "doing together".

The training consists of two stages: initial artistic and technical training followed by hands-on creation. Facilitators will guide participants to work autonomously, emphasizing non-formal education methodologies. Key approaches include collective and creative intelligence, collaborative working, experiential learning, and reflection. Innovative and participatory methods will foster a dynamic group environment based on trust and respect. The project's impact and outcomes will be disseminated through an exhibition evening, documentary film, press coverage, and a post-training report.

WHO WE ARE ?

The association Sem&Vol, affiliated to Solidarités Jeunesses, works towards :

the voluntary participation of all in social life – at local, national and international levels, a local development respectful of the individual, the environment and cultural heritage, intergenerational, intracultural, intercultural and international meetings and exchanges, tangible peace-building actions, reflection, practices and projects in the field of environmental education in line with a sustainable development approach.

The association is also expanding the action of the National Movement of Solidarités Jeunesses in the Dordogne, supporting the momentum in favour of rural life, in order to allow as many people as possible to :

- actively contribute to the development of their region (cultural heritage, heritage sites, environment, social life, ...),
- take part in national and international mobility programs (short-, medium and long-term volunteering),
- have access to diverse cultural and intercultural practices (territory development, presence of international volunteers, european exchanges),
- benefit from the resulting dynamic atmosphere which encourages people to get involved in other projects and actions adapted to the Périgord (the Dordogne),
- connect with people, create new openings and broaden their horizons.
